

SAINT GEORGE CATHOLIC CHURCH

May 18, 2025 – Fifth Sunday of Easter

TODAY'S READINGS:

The Church is the New Jerusalem, the bride of Christ, the very Body of Christ. The Lord is in our midst. Yet the all-holy Church is also made up of weak and often sinful human beings. Let us never be discouraged by sin or weakness. Let us always rejoice in the glory of Christ Who still abides with His Church.

First Reading: Acts 14: 21-27 - The apostles could not be in all places at all times; they therefore ordained priests to be the ambassadors of Christ. The apostles also warn that everyone who is faithful to Christ must expect to suffer for the sake of the gospel. Let us be confident of the presence of Christ among us.

Second Reading: Revelation 21: 1-5a—God dwells with His people. He is not far away. The Church has not yet reached full perfection, yet we must be confident that the Lord is always with us.

Gospel: John 13: 31-33a, 34-35 - Jesus said that all people would know that we are His followers if we have love for each other. Wherever there is love, there God also is. Let us always reflect on the “new commandment” in our lives.

HABEMUS PAPAM!

We join with the whole church in celebrating our newly elected Holy Father—
Pope Leo XIV!

O God, who chose your servant Leo in succession to the Apostle Peter as shepherd of the whole flock, look favorably on the supplications of your people and grant that, as Vicar of Christ on earth, he may confirm his brethren and that the whole Church may be in communion with him in the bond of unity, love and peace, so that in you, the shepherd of souls, all may know the truth and attain life eternal. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

St. George Parish has contributed a total of $4,595 of our $7,595 goal.
Way to go!

The appeal is still ongoing.
