

SAINT GEORGE CATHOLIC CHURCH

May 26, 2024—Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

From all eternity, God the Father called us in Jesus Christ to be His adopted ones, His holy ones. The Holy Spirit makes Christ present among us and in us. Let us be faithful to our calling. Let us offer all glory to the Father, through Jesus Christ His Son, in the Holy Spirit, together with Mary and all the saints.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 4: 32-34, 39-40 - Today's first reading tells of God's people gathered in Mt. Sinai to receive the Law of God through Moses. God shows Himself different from the "no-gods" of the pagans. Our God is the Lord of history; He has shown Himself to His people.

Second Reading: Romans 8: 14-17 - The eighth chapter of Romans is one of the most beautiful chapters of the Bible. In today's readings, St. Paul tells us to have absolute confidence in God; Christ Jesus has shown us His love. We have become adopted children of God in Jesus, and we can cry out to Him as our loving Father. The Holy Spirit is in our hearts to enable us to approach God in love.

Gospel: Mark 28: 16-20 - In the last verses of Matthew's gospel, Jesus commands His followers to go and make disciples of all nations. He commands us to teach and to baptize in the name of the Trinity. We are to give glory to the Father through the Son in the Holy Spirit.

Reflection on the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity

St. Augustine wrote: "You see the Trinity if you see love." According to him, the Father is the lover, the Son is the loved one and the Holy Spirit is the personification of the very act of loving. This means that we can understand something of the Mystery of the Holy Trinity more readily with the heart than with our feeble mind.

St. Francis Xavier's favorite prayer was: "Most Holy Trinity, who live in me, I praise You, I worship You, I adore You and I love You." Let the Son lead us to the Father through the Spirit, to live with the Triune God forever and ever. Amen.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

YEAR OF PARISH REVIVAL | June 11, 2023 – July 17, 2024

Mystagogy is an ancient form of catechesis (witnessing the faith through word, experience, prayer and liturgy) that helps us to go deeper into the mysteries we celebrate in the sacraments.

A Paschal Mystagogy: Universal Call to Holiness

Therefore, O Lord, we humbly implore you: by the same Spirit, graciously make holy these gifts we have brought to you for consecration, that they may become the Body and Blood of your Son our Lord Jesus Christ, at whose command we celebrate these mysteries." Jesus is coming—and the Spirit is at work. The simple elements that lay visible upon the altar—tiny wafers of bread and a few simple drops of wine—will soon be substantially changed. Your heart is drawn up into this mysterious petitionary prayer as the priest lovingly suspends his open hands, palms down over the simple elements. In the inner stillness of your spirit, you sense the hidden presence of God, soon to be made manifest truly, sacramentally, in the Holy Eucharist. You sense that your own loving communion with the Trinity is also transforming you. Indeed, the Spirit of the Lord, dwelling in you, makes you holy...

Maybe you have heard people say that Mass is boring because the same words and actions happen day after day. The assumption is that if something is quietly repeated and there doesn't appear to be any change, then nothing happens.

This is where the holy sacrifice of the Mass completely surprises those who take the time to understand what is really happening; for what is happening in the quiet reverence of Mass is, simply put, the most powerful transformation ever experienced on earth.

The Mass is about revelation and transformation on so many levels. However, everyone attending should be aware of a particular point in the Mass when everything is about to change: the epiclesis. The epiclesis is that moment in the Liturgy of the Eucharist where the priest lowers his outstretched hands, palms down, above the gifts of bread and wine.

Beyond the joy and peace we receive from the Eucharist, mission awaits us; the world awaits what we have received. When we experience the epiclesis, our hearts must be open to the fact that what is happening right then in the Mass is destined to impact someone in our life, maybe family, neighbors, someone at work, or a random person at the coffee shop. But be sure of this; God fed you that you would be His body in the community.

Jesus is in you and continues his mission through you. You can do it; Jesus chose you; just remember to say "yes" when you witness the epiclesis in Mass, yes to the Eucharist, and yes to being transformed as the Mystical Body of Christ.
