

SAINT GEORGE CATHOLIC CHURCH

September 21, 2025 – 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

OUR MISSION

St. George Parish in Waimanalo is a community of many diverse people joined together to proclaim God's Word in Holy Scripture by celebrating the Liturgy and building a faith community. Uniquely embraced by the majestic Koolau and rolling seas, we strive to be a welcoming parish and commit ourselves to serve the people of God through outreach, unity and renewal.

TODAY'S READINGS:

All that we are and all that we have comes from God. Everything is to be used for His greater honor and glory and for the promotion of human dignity among all God's children. God has purchased us at a great price; we do not belong to ourselves, but to Him. Let us renew our dedication to put our trust in the Lord and not in material things. Let us strive to promote social justice and quality in the lives of all persons.

1st Reading: Amos 8: 4-7 - The prophet Amos was a poor country shepherd from southern Palestine. Eight centuries before Christ, God called Amos to prophesy to the rich and sophisticated northern kingdom of Israel. Amos angrily cries out against social injustice.

2nd Reading: 1 Timothy 2: 1-8 - St. Paul urges us to pray for everyone, but especially those who are powerful. The powerful have more temptations to avarice and other vices. We must never be jealous of them, but must unselfishly and blamelessly pray for all.

Gospel: Luke 16: 1-13 - As we listen to the words of today's gospel, let us ask ourselves what our real values in life are. What it comes right down to is, our actions show what our goals are. If we show by action that we value the things money can buy more than we value our faith, we are serving a false master.

NĀ KŪPUNA O KRISTO MINISTRY

Nā Kūpuna O Kristo Ministry

Aloha e Nā Kūpuna! Mark your calendars and join in the fun at the following gatherings that are planned with you in mind.

September 21: “Cultural Heritage Day”. Every family has a token or artifact that represents a person or part of their family history, be it a book, a picture, etc. Bring in the item and share your story. We all have something interesting to share. We are all interested in learning more about you. You are welcomed to bring in a pupu sized dish that highlights your culture to share at lunch.

All Kūpuna are welcomed to every planned gathering. Gatherings are always planned to address the physical, psychological and spiritual health and welfare of Kūpuna.

Come one. Come all!
